Oxford highlights

Oxford University Colleges

Visit some of the university's world-famous colleges. The most famous is Christ Church, whose Great Hall inspired Hogwarts Hall in the Harry Potter films!

Punting

Have a go at the traditional Oxford activity of 'punting' on the River Cherwell. The perfect way to get to know the city from a new perspective.

Oxford parks and green spaces

Oxford is home to many stunning green spaces, from the sprawling 'University Parks' in the city centre, to secret gardens and courtyards across the city

Ashmolean Museum

Founded in 1683, the Ashmolean Museum is one of Britain's most important museums of art and archaeology.

Botanic Gardens and Arboretum

Enjoy a visit to the UK's oldest botanic gardens. Take a stroll through 130 acres of woodland, or marvel at over 6,000 species of plant

Food and drink

Oxford has hundreds of cafes, restaurants, bars and pubs, with options available to suit all budgets and tastes.

Food from Asia, China, India, Italy, France, England and many more countries is all widely available, and there are lots of international supermarkets located across the city if you'd prefer to prepare food at home.

For a modern twist on traditional British food, check out one of Oxford's trendy gastropubs.

Who you'll meet

Jeanette
Lindsey-Clarke,
Director of Studies

"I'm based at our vibrant and friendly city centre site in Oxford. I'm here to help you with any questions you have about your classes or learning here at Kings. Looking forward to meeting you and helping you make the most of your time in the UK."

Marc Burgess
Senior Teacher

"My role is both to support students during their time at Kings Oxford and to support teachers to fulfil their role as well as possible. I very much enjoy working in a thriving international educational environment and the variety my position offers."

Nick Davids
Assistant Director of Studies

"I talk to students if they have any questions or problems. With longer term students, I help them plan their long term objectives, such as taking an exam. I may also be your teacher! During the summer I help out at the Summer School at our St Joseph's campus."
